

Armando has significant experience in the Portuguese real estate market. He has a mature approach to vision, strategy, organizational and asset value creation. Achievements in all real estate asset types with expertise in development, project management, marketing and leasing, operations, investments, and capital markets/ finance. Sourced more than €1B in commitments from institutional investors and participate in relevant deals in Portugal in retail, offices, car parks, industrial and hospitality. His responsibilities include the sourcing of investment opportunities, obtaining debt finance and management of funds and asset portfolios. Armando has a graduation in economics and started his professional career in the banking sector. He entered the real estate asset management and development companies twenty years ago.